

Are you a student or recent graduate with a disability seeking an internship or job?

A WRP Recruiter will be interviewing students from USC this fall!

The WRP is a recruitment program for students and recent graduates with disabilities to find internships and jobs in the Federal Government.

Applying is an excellent way to:

- Find an internship or long-term position at federal agencies
- Explore government career options
- Gain interviewing experience

Registration is now open and runs through October 13th at WRP.gov

For more information, contact:

USC Career Center: careers@usc.edu

The WRP is managed by the U.S. Department of Labor and the U.S. Department of Defense.